

RESPITE IS KEY

Unlocking Community Resources

Presented by:
Karen Slingerland & Natalie Karam

WHO ARE WE?

Learning Objectives

We will:

1. Discuss an innovative, cost-effective way to support families
2. Explore some practical tools, and how this can be implemented in the community

Family is not always about blood

www.lovesandwordsofthedivine.com

sometimes It's about who is there to hold your hand and support YOU, when YOU need them!

HISTORY MATTERS

How did We Hear about Respitality?

OK... so what now?

1. Get the approval from your Organization to move forward with the Respitality Program

2. Establish eligibility criteria for who can access the Respitality Program

3. Create a Rack Card or Brochure that explains the purpose of the Respitality Program

"It was absolutely refreshing—excellent food, relaxing spa time, walking in the sunshine... couldn't have asked for a better experience. Thank You!!!"
-Family accessing Respitality-

"Our night away was AMAZING! We felt like we were in a different time and place, despite being so close to home! Actually, the most wonderful escape ever."

4. Send Introduction Letters & E-mails to potential Hotels and invite them to participate

5. Set up a face-to-face meeting with the hotel manager to explain Respitality

Regardless of how tech-savvy you may be, face-to-face meetings are still the most effective way to capture the attention of participants, engage them in the conversation, and drive productive collaboration.

6. Create and sign an Agreement Letter with the Hotel

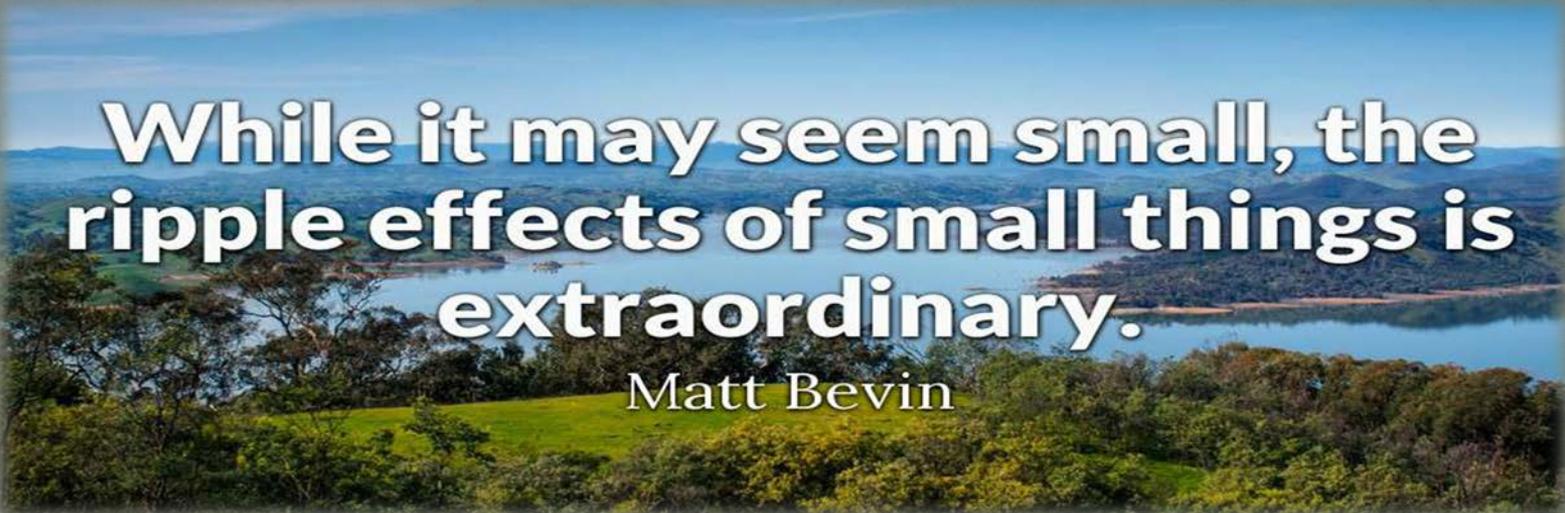

...and
Relax

Harrison Hot Springs Resort

Family Quote:

“We both wanted to thank you so much for this opportunity, it was amazing as you said it would be . The food was fabulous and the music was so relaxing and gave us that quiet time we so needed.”

Hampton Inn

Family Quote:

“It is truly invaluable to parents with special needs. And it helps to give people a chance to reconnect , in an often hectic life that we have”

Royal Hotel

Family Quote:

“I just wanted to say “Thank You” so much for giving us this opportunity to go away. It was such a fun and lovely experience. A much needed rest.”

Coast Hotel

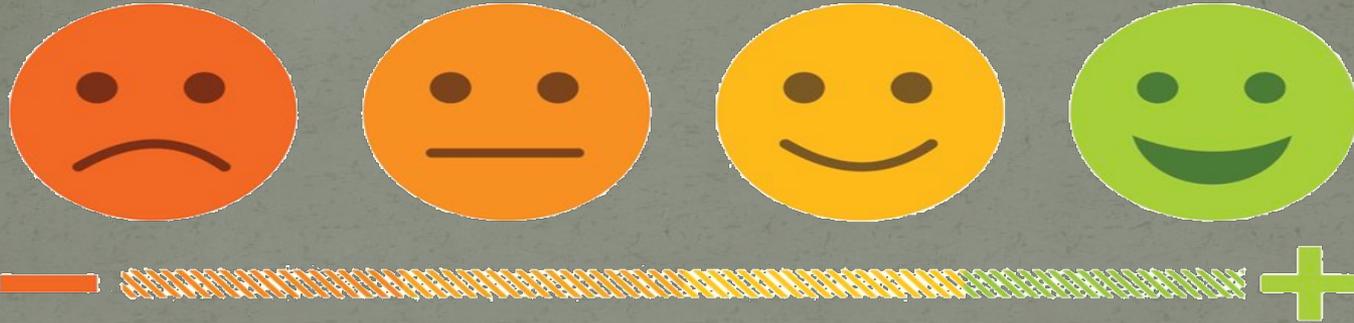

Family Quote:

*“We pour most of our heart , soul, and funds into care for our children’s needs.
So this is a big bonus.”*
